Police Officer Baseline Survey

1.1	POLICE MODULE Consent Form Hello, my name is _____ Purpose  I and my colleagues have come from J-PAL South Asia at IFMR. J-PAL is a research organization that conducts studies regularly on various topics like health, education, poverty, rural development etc. across the country. We are working with researchers at the University of Virginia and Oxford University to understand how police provide services to women, and how the police might improve approachability for women. Voluntary Participation and Confidentiality  This survey is completely voluntary and you can choose to stop the survey at any point or not answer any question you feel uncomfortable about. Participation in the study will have no bearing on your job, and your decision on whether to participate or not (as well as any responses to survey questions) will not be shared with your supervisors. All personal identification information will be kept confidential. Only those involved in conducting the study will have access to the information, and the data will be stored securely. Risks and Benefits  The survey includes questions asking about your opinion of police policy, of policing related to women, and your time use, and you should feel free to decline answering questions you may be uncomfortable with. There is also no penalty for refusing to take part in this interview and neither is there any incentive for participation. However, your honest answers to these questions will help us better understand the police's perspectives on women's issues and improve services in the future. Your views are very important to us and we would greatly appreciate your help in responding to this survey Questions  If you have any questions or doubts about the survey, you can ask me now. Do you have any questions for me? In case you need any more information about the survey, please contact [SURVEY SUPERVISOR NAME] at the JPAL-SA office in Bhopal at [SURVEY SUPERVISOR PHONE NUMBER]. You may also contact the Institutional Review Board at the University of Virginia: Tonya R. Moon, Ph.D., Chair, Institutional Review Board for the Social and Behavioral Sciences, One Morton Dr Suite 500, University of Virginia, P.O. Box 800392, Charlottesville, VA 22908-0392, USA. ## Section 7. Officer time use

I'd like to ask you to remember all of your activities during the course of the last 24 hours. Please be very specific of the details of your actions—we'd like to know every activity that you did for a one hour or more. For instance, remember to mention things like eating, reading the newspaper, playing with your children, and other activities.

Note to the surveyor: Note down the current time. Start questions from 24 hours prior to the current time. For eg: If the current time is 2 pm, start with 2 pm of the previous day. Ask the following question and repeat them till 24 hours is complete.

7.1 What were you doing between XX pm/am to XX pm/am (1-hour interval) yesterday?

7.2 Were you doing any other activity during this time?

Please note that when the respondent specifies a time at which s/he went to bed, ask her/him at what time they woke up. Till the time they were sleeping, fill sleep as the activity in the time sheet. Do not ask activity for every 30 minutes during this time interval. For eg: If the respondent says s/he slept at 10:00 pm and woke up at 6:00 am, fill sleep as the activity from 10:00 pm to 06:00 am. Do not ask what they did for every 30 minutes in this time interval.
